“Michael and Sharon Winslow have been extremely involved in the promotion of this project. Their love for children, and understanding the needs of those less fortunate, have been evident in their public support for the Metu and Lee Fund to assist middle class families with children facing any form of cancer.

Michael Winslow will be heading into the studio in a couple of weeks to do the audio version of the book. He will be the voices of some of the characters in the book. His amazing talent will lend voices to characters like Chemo Commando, and Radiation Rod.

Michael and Sharon Winslow's love and support for the Metu and Lee Project are very much appreciated.”
