The new Central Florida Breast Center, which opened in Winter Park in late April, holds an official ribbon-cutting this afternoon, with Winter Park Mayor David Strong scheduled to do the honors.

The center at 2200 Glenwood Drive performs mammograms, diagnostic ultrasounds, minimally invasive biopsies and radiation treatments. It was founded by Dr. Shenin Sachedina, a board-certified general surgeon who specializes in breast diseases. She is the author of the children's book, Metu & Lee Learn About Breast Cancer.

The two-hour media event, which is not open to the public, starts at 4:30 p.m. It will also feature actor and sound-effects entertainer Michael Winslow, a friend and strong supporter of Dr. Sachedina.
